Connections Program: To truly end the stigma of dementia, we must reach out to, and connect with, everyone impacted by dementia. After all, dementia impacts more than those diagnosed. A dementia diagnosis affects caregivers, friends, congregations, health professionals, and others who are curious about preventing or delaying symptoms. Through our various Connections, we want to provide an avenue for everyone to receive the education and support they need. We offer some Amazing Place Connections at our Drexel location, and many throughout the city of Houston at various churches, offices, community centers, and more. Our Education and Training Connections consist of classes that help improve care-giving skills and foster caregiver health, opportunities to learn effective memory-enhancing techniques and presentations that promote brain healthy lifestyles. Our Engagement and Support Connections connect those impacted by dementia with other individuals who can provide needed support and guidance.
